

Supporting ZionSolutions, LLC in the Design and Fabrication of Equipment for the Zion Station D&D Project

New "Sandbox" Cover Plates

Thick Stainless Steel plates were supplied to provide protection in the event of heavy items making contact above the dry annulus around the reactor vessel.

New Sandbox Cover Plates provided a waterproof seal that could withstand impact and support the weight of large components during the numerous cavity activities.

